JUVANA DSOUZA

EDITORIAL AND OTHER SOCIETIES SECRETARY

PROFILE

Energetic and dedicated student with a proven track record of leadership and service. As an active member of the junior council, I have refined my skills in teamwork, communication, and problem-solving. My passion for representing and serving the student body drives my involvement in various extracurricular activities. I thrive in collaborative environments and excel in organizing events, engaging with diverse groups, and effectively communicating student concerns. Now seeking to leverage my experiences and enthusiasm as the Editorial and Other Societies Secretary in the senior council to contribute to enhancing the student experience.

ORGANIZING EXPERIENCE

- Played a key role in organizing Euphoria, the annual college cultural fest.
- Contributed significantly to planning and executing events at Crescendo, the annual college technical fest.
- Actively coordinated activities during Athlead and Athlos, the college sports fests.
- Contributed to organizing CRMD, a national-level debate competition with over 32 participating teams.
- Utilized design skills for FragMag 2024, enhancing its visual identity and promotional materials.
- Organized literary events like Adalat and Unfinished Chronicles, fostering literary pursuits within the college community.

ACHEIVEMENTS

- Awarded for excellence in elocution competitions during my schooling years.
- Secured first place in both Mathematics and Science Olympiads.
- Won multiple drawing competitions during my school years, showcasing artistic talent and creativity.
- Served as a member of the school student council, contributing to decision-making and representing student interests.
- First-year winner in the Euphoria event "Adalat," a debate competition, showcasing persuasive communication and critical thinking skills.
- Participated in the student leadership program held by the Indian Development Foundation, enhancing leadership skills and fostering a deeper understanding of community engagement and development.
- Anchored for CRMD 2023, demonstrating effective communication and hosting skills to engage the audience and ensure the smooth flow of the event.

VOLUNTEERING

- Choreographer for NAAC cultural event, demonstrating creativity and organizational skills in coordinating dance performances.
- Class choreographer for the annual "Impulse" event for both first and second years, showcasing leadership and teamwork in directing class performances.
- Volunteer for Rotaract, actively contributing to community service projects and initiatives.
- Participated in NSS events, engaging in community service activities to contribute to societal welfare.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

As an aspiring candidate for the role of Editorial and Other Societies Secretary at FRCRCE, I am thrilled at the prospect of leveraging my skills and enthusiasm to facilitate the annual national-level debate competition, CRMD, and contribute to curating the annual college magazine, FragMag.

With a robust background in event organization, spanning from the college's annual cultural fest Euphoria to technical fest Crescendo and sports fests like Athlos, along with my tenure as Assistant Design Incharge for the year 2023-24 and involvement in the FragMag 2024 design team, I bring a unique blend of creativity, organization, and dedication essential for this role. Additionally, my experience as the Literary Arts Head for Euphoria 2024 has enhanced my leadership and coordination skills. Engaging in event organization has not only refined my teamwork but also bolstered my leadership qualities and communication skills, enabling effective collaboration with diverse teams and participants.

My passion for fostering intellectual discourse through events like CRMD and showcasing the diverse talents within our college community through FragMag drives my interest in this role. I am committed to upholding the standards of excellence set by FRCRCE and contributing positively to its editorial team.

Beyond my organizational prowess, I bring a personal connection to the world of literature and debate, having won elocution competitions during my school years and continuing to participate actively in debates. My ardent love for literary works and passion for reading further fuel my dedication to promoting literary endeavors within our college community.

Thank you for considering my application. I eagerly anticipate the opportunity to serve as Editorial Secretary and make impactful contributions to the FRCRCE community.

Yours Sincerely
Juvana Dsouza
